

Current Account Credit (C.C.C.)

(Crédito en Cuenta Corriente)

What is it?

Crédito en Cuenta Corriente (C.C.C.) is a short term financing available in revolver manner up to the authorized balance of the credit line to support working capital, cash requirements, short-term expenses, inventory acquisition and concepts related to the operation of your business,

Why should you sign up?

- Foresee funds to make strong seasonal periods
- No pre- paid penalty
- Payment is made through direct charge to your checking account
- Backup to cash flow planning
- Participation in new business opportunities
- Funds in pesos and dollars
- Term for disposals up to 12 months

Requirements

- Having a Bancomer checking account
- Legal Information
- Financial information
- Authorization to consult the Credit Bureau
- Signing a Current Account Credit agreement